Circular

Title: EXPRESSION OF INTEREST – Water Cover – RWC operator – Lifesaving World Championships 2018
Document ID: C18039
Department: Lifesaving Department
Audience: Secretaries, IRB Captains, Club Captains, Vice-Club Captains
Date: 25th May 2018

Surf Life Saving SA has an obligation (as part of the service agreement with Lifesaving World Championships 2018) to provide RWC for water cover use for the Lifesaving World Championships 2018 event.

An expression of interest is being sought from RWC operators to provide water cover for Lifesaving World Championships 2018.

RWC operators will be required for water cover from Monday 19th November up to and including Sunday 2nd December at Glenelg.

Please note:

- Launch and retrieval of RWC will be from West Beach boat ramp.
- RWC operators will need to follow normal SLSSA standard operating procedures including wash down and refuelling.
- RWC proficiencies for those who express an interest to provide water cover will be conducted by SLSSA assessors on dates to be confirmed.

Additional information:

- Interstate surf lifesavers are also welcome to apply, but must be a financial member of a surf lifesaving club, and hold a Rescue Water Craft Operator Certificate.
- International lifesavers are welcome to apply, but must hold a boat licence and their national equivalent of the SLSA Rescue Water Craft Operator Certificate, and pass a proficiency test.
- No subsidies are available for interstate or international travel.
- SLSA members may be eligible for patrol hours.
- Volunteers will receive a LWC 2018 uniform, be provided with refreshments during shifts, and receive an invitation to the Volunteer Thank You function.

For more information, please direct all enquiries to Sonya Williamson, Lifesaving Operations Officer (8354 6900 or sonya.williamson@surflifesavingsa.com.au).

If you are interested in being rostered at Lifesaving World Championships 2018 for the date period listed above for RWC water cover, please register your interest by emailing lwc2018@surflifesavingsa.com.au by no later than 4.00pm Friday 24th August 2018.