CASE CATEGORISATION & GUIDANCE FOR SANCTIONS

Alleged breaches of the SLSA Policies are reviewed utilising a system set out in this guidance.

The system establishes a transparent, objective and consistent basis for evaluating allegations of Breach of policy and determining the appropriate Assessment process under the Complaints Resolution Policy.

The decision and process of how to progress alleged breaches of SLSA Policy, as well as the associated resourcing, is outlined in this guideline.

This section comprises of three main components:

- Case Categorisation
- Aggravating and Mitigating Circumstances
- Sanctions and Related Measures.

Matters within scope of the Complaints Resolution Policy may be categorised through a 3-tier system, based on the nature of the alleged conduct, perceived level of harm, and complexity. Each matter should be considered on its merits in light of these categories.

CATEGORY 1: BLUE - LOW

Category 1 (Blue) matters involve minor allegations of Breach of policy and mostly (although not always) involve a mistake, misunderstanding, or an absence of intent to harm. There are rarely, if any, complicating factors.

The presence of any complicating factors may escalate a matter to a more severe Category. Complicating factors include a real risk of harm, criminality, aggravating factors (as set out in Aggravating and Mitigating Circumstances later in this document), an uncooperative Respondent or risk to the sport.

Category 1 matters include (but are not limited to):

CHILD & YOUNG PEOPLE PROTECTION

- Children and Young People (CYP) having a physical altercation.
- Low level swearing, derogatory or disrespectful comments, chastising a CYP.
- Aggressive tone, disrespectful comments, or a heated altercation, in the absence of malice, vilification or bullying or other egregious behaviour.
- Lewd jokes (where adults involve minors, a higher category may result).
- Unnecessary physical contact (not involving sexual misconduct) including pushing, shoving or bumping into another.
- Non-compliance with the following Child Safe Code of Conduct, but only where no obvious aggravating circumstances or behavioural patterns of concern are present:
 - Exhibiting favouritism towards a child.
 - Photographing a child without appropriate consent.

- Transport of a child/children without parent / guardian consent.
- Gifting to a child/children unless an official award.
- Engaging in open discussions of a mature nature in the presence of children.
- Social media contact with a child/children (where there is no inappropriate content).
- Accepting invitation to attend a private social function without an existing social, personal or family relationship.

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

- Low level disagreements between individuals related to imposing the regulations of the club, arguments and heated discussions.

OTHER

- disagreements between parents involving team selections

CATEGORY 2: AMBER – MEDIUM

Category 2 (Amber) matters allege policy breach violations and may involve the risk of moderate or reasonable harm, or repeated, more severe or more complex Category 1 allegations.

Category 2 matters may also allege more severe policy breach violations, or complicating factors, having regard to frequency, intensity, number of reported incidents or complaints received, or where the circumstances indicate a reasonable possibility for escalation (and may require referral to law enforcement).

The presence of any complicating factors may escalate a matter to a more severe Category. Complicating factors include a real risk of harm, criminality, aggravating factors (as set out in Aggravating and Mitigating Circumstances), an uncooperative Respondent or risk to the sport.

Category 2 matters include (but are not limited to):

FREQUENCY & INTENSITY

- Repeated or more severe Category 1 matters, including the risk of reasonable harm.

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

- Member to member bullying including cyberbullying.
- Mocking a member's appearance or body shape.

CATEGORY 3: RED – HIGH

Category 3 (Red) matters may involve criminal behaviour and / or immediate risk of harm, and includes child abuse, sexual abuse and includes sexual misconduct, as well as serious assault, doping and corruption. All matters arising from Policy 6.16 are listed as a Category 3 matter.

Category 3 matters may include more severe Category 1 or 2 allegations where there is the presence of significant complications.

Whether a matter is more severe is determined on the specific circumstances, including the frequency, intensity, number of reported incidents or complaints received.

The presence of any complicating factors may escalate a matter to a more severe Category. Complicating factors include a real risk of harm, criminality, aggravating factors (as set out in Aggravating and Mitigating Circumstances), an uncooperative Respondent or risk to Surf Life Saving.

- Activities resulting in a Data Breach.

AGGRAVATING AND MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

The following guiding principles are intended to outline the aggravating and mitigating circumstances that should be taken into account when evaluating and assessing a matter under the Case Categorisation System and before determining the appropriate response.

The relative level of aggravating and mitigating circumstances may impact on the ultimate re-categorisation of a matter as well as the appropriate sanction (if any).

In addition to aggravating or mitigating circumstances, there may be other factors to consider that increase the relative complexity of a matter.

Aggravating circumstances include consideration of:

- The presence of criminality, including sexual abuse.
- Actual or threatened use of violence.
- Breach was committed in the presence of a child under 18 years of age.
- Victim's vulnerability, for example, because the victim was very young or very old or had a disability, or because of the geographical isolation of the victim.
- Behaviour that is malicious, or targets vulnerable people.
- Behaviour that is coordinated or operating as part of a group.
- Behaviour that targets multiple parties or results in multiple victims.
- Breach motivated by race, religion, ethnicity, nationality, sexual identity, disability, gender.
- Gratuitous cruelty.
- Injury, emotional harm, loss or damage was substantial, including the level of embarrassment, distress or humiliation by the victim.
- Previously similar conduct or related breaches, previous sanctions.
- Failure to comply with provisional action.
- Breach whilst on probation or a sanction.
- Ongoing and sustained offending over a period of time.
- Abuse of position of power or trust.
- Attempting or disposing of evidence.
- Lack of cooperation.
- The breach was premeditated (rather than spur of the moment).
- The Respondent has previously undertaken education in relation to the particular type of conduct.

Mitigating circumstances include consideration of:

- First time breach.
- Unplanned, spur of the moment behaviour.
- Youth and age of the person breaching.
- Limited role played in the breach.
- The Respondent had taken reasonable steps, prior to commencing an Assessment, to settle the disagreement or dispute.
- The Respondent was not fully aware of the consequences of his or her actions because of the Respondent's age or any disability.
- Accepting responsibility and level of
- Remorse / contrition.
- Level of cooperation.
- Harm suffered by the victim or the sport was not substantial
- The presence of provocation, persuasion, or coercion by others.
- Mental illness.
- Risk of loss of employment.
- Whether the prohibited behaviour was uncharacteristic including
 - the length of service, balancing a previously unblemished record against the expectation of greater awareness of behavioural requirements,
 - whether there are records of previous counselling or breaches of SLSA Policies about related issues,
 - the extent to which there is evidence that the behaviour is atypical - to assess this, the behaviour over a longer period may need to be examined e.g. any records of discussion with the individual within the last two years. Relevance of previous behaviour diminishes over time,
 - the individual's attempts to manage any external personal issues impacting on the conduct, such as accessing welfare help.

SANCTIONS AND RELATED MEASURES

The following principles are intended to serve as a minimum standard for providing guidance to Surf Life Saving clubs when sanctions and other measures may be appropriate to address allegations of Policy Breach under the Complaints Resolution Policy.

The purpose is to provide SLS Entities an appropriate range of sanctions and related measures that may be applicable in a particular type of integrity matter as part of assisting SLS Entities to develop and manage a robust integrity framework. SLSA and State Centres may also provide advice to clubs in individual cases as to whether particular conduct fits within the range of measures set out in this guidance.

SLS Entities are ultimately responsible for applying and administering sanctions and related measures as they see fit, having regard to, amongst other things, SLSA and State Centres guidance.

SANCTIONS

Rather than seeking to punish, sanctioning misconduct is primarily aimed at protecting an individual from harm with a secondary aim of protecting the integrity of sport.

Sanctions are also designed to provide a clear message that the behaviour was unacceptable, thereby acting as a deterrent.

The decision about whether to apply a sanction needs to be considered carefully on the facts and context of each case having regard to the following:

- the seriousness of the conduct
- whether it was a one-off incident or a part of an overall pattern of behaviour
- whether it was an honest and reasonable mistake
- the potential impact on public confidence in the integrity of the sport
- the views, if any, of the Complainant (for example, merely seeks an apology).

Aggravating and Mitigating circumstances (as set out in Aggravating and Mitigating Circumstances) should be taken into account before determining the appropriate sanctions, if any. Aggravating circumstances refers to the factors particular to a breach, the victim or the offending party that increase the severity or culpability.

For example, whether a person acted maliciously, or made an honest and reasonable mistake.

As a general rule, the more serious the alleged behaviour, the more appropriate it is to use sanctions.

RANGE OF SANCTIONS AND RELATED MEASURES include one or a combination of any of the following:

Category 1 Breaches

The following range of measures may be appropriate:

- Awareness of Policies.
- Mandatory awareness and education requirements.
- Formal Warning and / or Reprimand.
- Requiring an apology.

Category 2 Breaches

The following range of sanctions could be considered (in conjunction with Category 1 measures):

- Formal conciliation or mediation.
- Counselling.
- Restricted duties or access.
- Supervision and mandatory oversight.
- Mandatory education and programs.
- Temporary suspension from relevant event / entity / club.

Category 3 Breaches

The following range of sanctions could be considered:

- Formal and mandatory awareness and education requirements.
- Formal Reprimand.
- Requiring an apology.
- Formal conciliation or mediation.
- Counselling.

- Role change / restricted duties or access.
- Supervision and mandatory oversight.
- Mandatory education and programs.
- Withdrawal of accreditation from the relevant sporting event.
- Return of awards.
- Temporary suspension from relevant event / entity / club.
- Expulsion from the event / entity / club.

More than one sanction or measure may apply in any given circumstance.

PROVISIONAL ACTION

Provisional Action is the process undertaken to impose a temporary measure on a member while they are subject to the Complaints Process, or an investigation by law enforcement. Provisional Action is designed to keep members safe by removing or monitoring a person within the Sport who may pose a potential risk of harm to others. The following principles should be considered when determining what type of Provisional Action may be appropriate:

- The type of Provisional Action recommended should be sufficient to mitigate the potential risk posed by the Respondent but should not be punitive; and
- The type of Provisional Action should not be more significant than a possible sanction may be, should the alleged policy breach be Substantiated.

Provisional Action should be determined on a case-by-case basis. The categorisation of a matter within the Case Categorisation System and the sanctioning principles provide guidance as to the types of Provisional Action that may be suitable.

ALTERNATIVES TO SANCTIONS (OTHER MEASURES)

Options available to address allegations of policy breach through means other than breach proceedings and / or sanctions include:

- through SLSA's own code of conduct.
- by encouraging awareness training for the individual.
- by informal counselling.
- by assigning new roles duties, although due care should be taken to ensure this action does not amount to a sanction without due process.
- by offering informal and formal alternative dispute resolution to assist in resolving interpersonal disputes.

Alternative measures may not satisfactorily resolve concerns about an individual's conduct and the individual may continue to engage in misconduct. It may therefore be necessary to administer more severe sanctions – even in relation to less severe matters – particularly where there are concerns that a pattern of misconduct may be emerging.

PROPORTIONALITY

The application of sanctions and other measures must always adhere to due process, thereby enabling Respondents to be heard before sanctions are applied.

Sanctions and other measures must be applied in accordance with the principle of proportionality – that is, in proportion to the severity of the violation(s) in any given matter. This will include taking into account any aggravating and mitigating circumstances (see earlier).

IMPLEMENTATION AND MONITORING

It is the responsibility of SLS Entities to implement and apply the Complaints Resolution Policy, including effecting sanctions where applicable.

SLS Entities should adopt appropriate mechanisms, such as awareness and educational programs, to best facilitate an understanding of the Complaints Resolution Policy within SLS. This should include providing, information on the Integrity Policies, and information on how to raise concerns about alleged breaches of policies.

(g) If the Respondent contests the allegation(s), then the Chair will ask all witnesses except the Complainant and the Respondent to leave the room and to wait to be called to give their evidence.

(h) The Complainant shall give evidence and the witnesses (if any) called by the Complainant(s) shall be called upon to give their evidence in turn, subject to the approval of the number of witnesses to be called by the Judiciary in its discretion. (j) The Respondent shall then present their defence. Witnesses may be called subject to the approval of the number of witnesses to be called by the Judiciary in its discretion. Complainants or the adviser to a Complainant who is a minor may ask questions of the Respondent or any witness called.

(k) Where a person under the age of 18 exercises his/her right to have an adult observer or adviser present in accordance with this Process, a reasonable opportunity for consultation between the minor and the adviser shall be provided by the Judiciary.

(l) Where the Respondent makes video evidence available to the Judiciary, it may, at the discretion of the Judiciary, be presented to the Judiciary and may be viewed by the Judiciary. The onus of providing suitable viewing equipment shall lie with the person requesting that the evidence be presented.

(m) The Judiciary may, so as to limit inconvenience to witnesses, allow evidence to be given by telephone or videoconference.

27. At the conclusion of all of the evidence and submissions the Chair shall ask the Respondent, the Complainant and all other persons present to leave the hearing room while the Judiciary considers its findings.

28. If the Judiciary is satisfied that a breach of a Relevant Policy has been proven applying the Standard of Proof, it shall find the breach proven. Otherwise, the alleged breach and therefore Complaint shall be dismissed.

29. If the Judiciary is not satisfied that the particular alleged breach has been proven but is satisfied that a lesser or some other breach of a Relevant Policy has been proven, then the Judiciary may find such lesser breach proved.

30. Where it appears to the Judiciary that the Complainant has made an error in making the allegation of a breach of a Relevant Policy, or omitted alleged breaches that should have been made, the Judiciary may amend the allegation(s), subject always to the requirement that the Respondent must be informed of the new allegations and given an opportunity to respond to such allegations.

31. The decision of the Judiciary shall be given by the Chair in the presence of both the Respondent and Complainant, unless one or both choose not to remain. If:

- (a) one of the Respondent or Complainant are not present, the Chair may give the decision orally, and must communicate the decision to the non-attending party in writing as soon as practicable; or
- (b) neither the Respondent nor Complainant are present, the Chair must communicate the decision to each of the Respondent and Complainant in writing as soon as practicable.

32. The Judiciary may reserve its decision but if it does so, it must provide its decision within 14 days of the hearing.

33. The Judiciary is not obliged to give oral or written reasons for any decision made by it under this Process but may do so if it wishes.

34. Where the Judiciary finds that one or more alleged breaches of a Relevant Policy have been proven, it shall inform the parties of its decision and provide the Complainant and the Respondent with an opportunity to make submissions as to any aggravating or mitigating factors, before the Judiciary decides on Sanction. The Judiciary may, in its absolute discretion, decide that it is appropriate to:

- (a) receive oral submissions as to Sanction immediately after delivering its decision on liability; or
- (b) adjourn the hearing to allow the parties to make Sanction submissions on some later date, in which case, the Judiciary shall direct whether submissions on penalty should be made orally or in writing.

35. After considering the parties' submissions as to Sanction, the Judiciary shall determine the Sanction to be imposed (if any) in accordance with clause 8.3 of the Policy and shall advise the Respondent and Complainant of the Sanction. The Chair shall also notify the Complaints Manager of the decision of the Judiciary.

The onus of providing suitable viewing equipment shall lie with the person requesting that the evidence be presented.

(k) The Appeals Tribunal may, so as to limit inconvenience to witnesses, allow evidence to be given by telephone or videoconference.

17. At the conclusion of all of the evidence and submissions the Chair shall ask the SLS Entity Respondent, the Appellant and all other persons present to leave the hearing room while the Appeals Tribunal considers its findings.
